

Welcome to Bergamo and its territory

Discover the Bergamo Chamber of commerce and its territory, one of the most dynamic and richest regions in Italy. Well-known for its long-standing productive tradition, Bergamo is the home town of such reputed trademarks as Brembo, Gewiss, Italcementi, San Pellegrino, Same Deutz-Fahr, Sit-in and Tenaris. Over 90,000 companies are members of the local Chamber of commerce, making it one of Italy's strongest.

The varied territory of Bergamo is also a mine of endless surprises when visitors travel from the plain to the Orobic Alps passing by the lakes and the hilly belt where the grapevine and olive trees are grown. The diversity of nature is one of the reasons why Bergamo can offer so much in delicious food and wine, and is so rich in gourmet restaurants. Cheeses stand out for their incredible variety and quality, and the local cuisine, both traditional and innovative, is an asset of the hospitality sector.

Bergamo old town can be seen from Orio al Serio airport runway - on a backdrop of lush green or white-capped mountain peaks. Over 13 million passengers yearly arrive or leave from this pivotal transport hub connected to more than 130 destinations. The view of the intact circle of ancient Venetian walls enclosing precious monuments and buildings bids all a warm welcome or wishes them to come back soon.
